This can will be gold mounted, and suitably inscribed.

President Mc. H. Webb has called a meeting of Postmasters of the Fourth class of Kentucky, on February 11, at Louisville Custom House, to make arrangements to attend in a body the ceremonies at Hodgenville.

Many Sleepless Nights, Owing to a Persistent Cough. Relief Found at Last.

"For several winters past my wife has been troubled with a most persistent and disagreeable cough, which invariably extended over a period of several weeks and caused her many sleepless nights," writes Will J. Hayner, editor of the Burley, Colo., Bulletin. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in an appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." This remedy is for sale by R. H. White & Co. 30-4

Japanese Excluded.

The California Legislature passed a bill segregating the Japanese school children in separate schools along with the Chinese, Koreans and other Asiatics.

President Roosevelt in a telegram to the Governor, says: "Your kind letter just received. What is the rumor that the California Legislature has passed a bill excluding the Japanese children from the public schools? This is the most offensive bill of all, and, in my judgment, is clearly unconstitutional and we should at once have to test it in the courts. Can it be stopped in the Legislature, or by veto?"

Two years ago he said "that to shut them (the Japanese) out from the common schools is wicked absurdity, when there are no first-class colleges in the land, including the university and colleges of California, which do not gladly welcome Japanese students, and on which the Japanese students do not reflect credit."

MUCH TO LEARN FROM JAPS. "We have as much to learn," said the President at that time, "from the Japanese as the Japanese have to learn from us, and no nation is fit to teach unless it is willing to learn."

Trezevant, secretary of the organization that entertains Judge Taft, is determined that Louisiana shall not be behind Georgia in furnishing unique viands for him.

Rev. A. E. Carnahan Thinks of Old Kentucky.

Prairie Grove, Ark., Feb. 5, '09. Editors Advocate.

Dear Sirs:—When I started West I promised to write to you and at this late date will carry out my promise. We left Kentucky in the latter part of August, 1907, and went to Cameron in North West Missouri. In December following we made a visit to Arkansas and returned again to Missouri in February, 1908. Missouri is a fine country but we decided to go from there to the Gulf Coast country of Texas. But before we could carry out this plan I received and accepted a proposition to teach school in Arkansas. So we moved to Arkansas about the first of July, 1908. Soon after my school opened I accepted a call to preach to two churches and from that time on have had my hands full. One of my churches is at a place known as Cane Hill, where I was reared and educated, and ten miles from where I now live. It is an old college town. Prairie Grove is a new town of about 1600 inhabitants, and on a branch of the Frisco running from Fayetteville, Ark., to Muskogee, Okla. It had been about 13 years since I left Arkansas and many changes had taken place. One place, where all was wild woods at that time, is now a flourishing town of 1200 or more inhabitants. Good farm lands are worth about $50 per acre. Land in bearing apple trees sells for $100 per acre. There is much land suitable for apple growing which can be bought for much less than farm lands. The chief industry is fruit growing, and the country is fast becoming a vast orchard. There are many ex-Kentuckians here. The season is true of Missouri. Thus far the winter has been mild—ten above being the coldest, and only one day at that. I have enjoyed the best of health in Arkansas and the health of my family has also been good.

I lived in Kentucky from June, 1892, to August, 1907. My ancestors left Kentucky in 1809 and came to Arkansas in 1811. They were from Logan county. The log house built by my great-grandfather, Rev. John Carnahan, is still standing in the county above named. It was erected some time previous to 1791. So I have many reasons to remember Kentucky, and often think of my friends there.

A. E. CARNAHAN.

Farmer Killed By Train.

A Morehead dispatch says: John Burton, a farmer of near West Liberty, Ky., was killed Tuesday night of last week, about five miles east of Mt. Sterling, by C. & O. train No. 24. His body was brought here on the same train. The railroad company instructed Undertaker S. Bishop to furnish a casket and send his body home. He leaves a wife and nine children.

WARM AND DRY TO STAY WELL

Tells the Readers of This Paper How to Prepare the Mixture at Home and Other Advice.

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturers reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in case of an attack.

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home-made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be a splendid kidney regulator, and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood, which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggists in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they can either supply these ingredients, or, if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them. 29-31

Prize Jersey Cow Gives 81-2 Tons of Milk in Year.

A. O. Auten, of Jerseyville, Ill., claims the world's championship for his Jersey cow, Jacoba Irena. Auten has a herd of cattle which he also claims are the greatest average producers in the world.

Jacoba Irena is No. 146,443 in the Jersey registry, and in 1908, when a new calf was born, and ended Sunday night, January 24, 1909. During the year the cow produced 17,253.5 pounds of milk, containing 1,124.58 pounds of butter.

The total amount of food she consumed during the year was Bran, 1,693.5 pounds; corn, 660.5 pounds; oil meal, 488.5 pounds; gluten, 1,614.5 pounds; oats, 362.5 pounds; corn silage, 7,490 pounds; cut alfalfa hay, 1,074 pounds; hay, 3,000 pounds. Total, 16,294.5 pounds. In addition the cow was in pasture for five hours a day for five months. The total cost of her feed was $96.45.

The total value of her butter, at the average Elgin quotation of 29 cents a pound, was $325.54. Her best days' yield of milk was 69.8 pounds, over eight gallons. Auten has refused $5,000 for the bull calf, which is just a year old. He sold a heifer calf last year for $1,000. He says he would not sell Jacoba Irena for any price. She is now 10 years and 9 months old.—The Memphis Press.

POOL ROOMS

Court of Appeals Puts Them Out of Business.

The Kentucky Court of Appeals on Friday put the finishing touch to pool rooms on horse-races in this State. The Court decides that operators of such rooms can be enjoined and that the Attorney General is the only proper official to file the injunction suit.

The opinion of Judge Hobson says: "No constitutional right of the defendants is violated by the proceedings for injunction. They are simply prevented from so using their property as to make it a nuisance in the future."

Challenge From W. S. Lloyd.

W. S. Lloyd is seeking the worst case of dyspepsia or constipation in Mt. Sterling or vicinity to test Dr. Howard's new specific for the cure of those diseases.

No confidant is he that this remarkable medicine will effect a lasting cure in a short time that he offers to refund the money should it not be successful.

In order to secure the quickest possible introduction W. S. Lloyd will sell a regular fifty cent package of this medicine for 25 cents. This specific of Dr. Howard's will cure sick headache, dizzy feelings, constipation, dyspepsia and all forms of malaria and liver trouble. It does not simply give relief for a time; it makes permanent and complete cures.

It will regulate the bowels, tone up the whole intestinal tract, give you an appetite, make food taste good and digest well, and increase vigor.

There is no need of suffering with constipation, dyspepsia or liver disease when you can get your appetite, make food taste good and digest well, and increase vigor.

PRESIDENT'S SAFETY.

Reports are that President-elect Taft is accompanied by two "secret service" men, private body guards. To us this appears to be bad policy, unnecessary, an arousing of suspicion, un-American.

Mt. Sterling and other towns are criticised because some men who lack discretion and self control can not resist the temptations that meet them when they go to town. As long as men refuse to obey the gospel they are more liable to fall and suffer dishonor.

Governor TURNED DOWN.

The Legislature of Tennessee passed a bill to "prohibit the manufacture in this State of intoxicating liquors for the purpose of sale." Governor Patterson vetoed the bill as he did the bill against the sale of liquors.

His Veto Message was in part: "If this Legislature shall destroy all the distilleries and breweries which cannot the next forbid the raising or selling of the grains or the cultivation of the grape out of which spirituous, malt or vinous liquors are made?"

"Shall this or some future Legislature prevent the farmer from raising or selling tobacco or the manufacturer from plugging it on the market?"

"If we thus start where shall we end? It is better not to make the start. In the exercise of my constitutional power as Governor I veto this measure and ask its reconsideration."

"First—Because it ruthlessly deprives the State of revenue without any sort of corresponding benefit."

"Second—It discriminates against our own people in favor of the people of other States."

"Third—It destroys the property of the citizen without compensation."

"Fourth—It makes a dangerous precedent, humiliates Tennessee and lowers the place of dignity she has occupied as one of the proud and most conservative of the Union."

"It violates the will of the people twice expressed at the ballot box, offends against their sense of justice and under the plea of civic righteousness, sacrifices a great moral principle of government at the very altar where it should be guarded and defended."

If the people of any town or state have a right to place restrictions upon a pig pen or a soap factory because their existence is offensive to the smell or is dangerous to health, have they not a right to suppress altogether if said pen or factory spreads contagion and destroys lives in a town?

If the sale of intoxicating liquors is a blessing to a community, if it brings more happiness than sorrow, more honor than shame, if it is a public necessity ministering the comfort and strength of men, women and children, why is any restraint put upon the traffic? Why impose heavy licenses for the privilege of conducting the business? Why is a police protection regarded as a necessity where liquor is sold? Why say to a saloon keeper you must pay $500 or $1,000 or $2,000 for the privilege of selling, when a dry goods merchant, a hardware man, a grocery man carries on his business without such burdens?

If the raising and selling and eating of grain and grapes should be attended by the same evil effects as attend the sale of whiskey, we think that wisdom, prudence, public safety and happiness would require restrictions, or prohibitions.

"Deprives the State of revenue." We have heard that before. We have heard—revenue or blasted hopes, impoverished homes, broken hearts, assassinated Carnacks, filled penitentiaries and an unending series of crimes traceable DIRECTLY to the whiskey traffic?

"It destroys the property of the citizen without compensation." Saloon keepers and distillers, while giving employment to some men, have during their entire business career been taking from the patrons of saloons money, honor virtue and strength "WITHOUT COMPENSATION."

If the CHIEF question is DOLLARS and dimes instead of daddies and daughters, the State would make a good trade by paying for the distilleries and burning them if no better disposition can be made of the property.

If another person is damned, eternally led astray by your influence, is that nothing to you? Yes, I am my brother's keeper, without having a chain around his neck to lead him as if he were a poodle dog.

Do not forget the college, depot, railroad and sewerage projects.

Don't be a kicker unless there is something that ought to be kicked.

MT. STERLING'S INFLUENCE

Mt. Sterling is a pretty little city. Her interests in many respects are Morehead's and Morehead's interests are hers. We speak not in a spirit of unjust criticism but with wishes for the best good of men when we say that Mt. Sterling deals death and hell to the territory surrounding her.

"Come in, John, how are you? What will you have, Old Sport?" said a Mt. Sterling Saloon keeper the other night to a man who shook his cordial hand, accepted his invitation to drink and went out to meet death on a railroad track because he had accepted the bartender's invitation.

It had happened before and would happen again. "Ha, ha," laughed the bartender next night, "Come in boys and drink." While John lay a corpse at home with his wife and children.

Mt. Sterling killed him. Year after year it goes on. Men from West Liberty, men from Owensboro, men from Salt Lake, men from Farmers, men from Morehead meet their death at Mt. Sterling. Mt. Sterling killed him. His wife is a widow, his children are orphans because Mt. Sterling consents to have whisky sold on her streets.

Mt. Sterling killed him. How tired we have grown of hearing the expression, "He had been to Mt. Sterling." Was he killed? Died like a dog in his very prime? Yes, he had been to Mt. Sterling. Was he cut up and bruised in a fight? Yes, he had been to Mt. Sterling. Did he, usually a perfect gentleman, insult a lady on the streets? Yes, he had been to Mt. Sterling.

Mt. Sterling, did you ever think of it, thus? You are responsible for many a crime in all the surrounding counties. Now, in many cities larger than you there are no saloons. A realization of the awfulness of the whisky traffic has swept over the County. Put them out and shake from your skirts the awful responsibility for the crime and misery of your sister towns.—Morehead Mountaineer, Feb. 3.

This is one expression regarding us. We have referred to the killing in Menefee, when Phelps and Woodard, brothers-in-law, killed each other, after drinking whiskey sold on SUNDAY in a saloon in our MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

Farm Sold.

Claude Holley has sold his farm of 113 acres on Grassy Lick pike to Richard Kalam, of Camargo, possession March 1st.

Robbing Yourself

That is just what you are doing when you fail to get regular and sufficient sleep. Your body requires this unconscious period for repair work; without it your nerve energy becomes exhausted, and you are tired, worn-out, nervous, excitable, have headache, neuralgia, indigestion, poor appetite, or other ailments caused by a lack of nerve force. Make it your business to sleep. If you are restless, take Dr. Miles' Nervine; it soothes and strengthens the nerves, and brings sweet, refreshing, life-giving sleep, and gives the organs power to work naturally. Try it to-day.

"I had a severe attack of fever, which left me in a very weak condition and very nervous. I had severe spells of headache and neuralgia, and could sleep but very little. Every effort that was made to recover my strength was of no avail until I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. After I commenced to take the Nervine, my sleep was profound and restful, and the pains in my head, as well as the neuralgia pains, left me to a certain extent and I grew gradually better."

To Cut Plate Glass.
To cut a piece of plate glass it is thought a diamond cutter is necessary but it is not. If the glass is not very thick it can be cut with a pair of scissors, a large pair being preferable. While cutting hold the glass beneath half a foot or more of water, and it can be cut any shape desired. A round piece of glass has been cut out of a good sized pane in just this manner. The scissors do not have to be extra sharp.—Success.

Many Thanks

To those who patronized our Charity Sale, thus enabling us to turn $16.35 over to the Associated Charities. It might as well have been $50.00, if some folks who occupy front porches and pray the loudest would have practiced what they preach and turned loose some of their idle dollars, but they will have another chance to make good at our next sale.
